On January 10, 2001, Qwest Corporation (Qwest) filed for approval by the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission (Commission) a fourth amendment to an interconnection agreement between Sprint Communications Company L.P. (Sprint) and Qwest. The fourth amendment adds terms and conditions for LIS Inter Local Calling Area (LCA) Facility.

On January 11, 2001, the Commission electronically transmitted notice of the filing of the fourth amendment to interested individuals and entities. The notice stated that any person wishing to comment on the parties' request for approval had until January 30, 2001, to do so. No comments were filed.

At its duly noticed February 21, 2001, meeting, the Commission considered whether to approve the negotiated fourth amendment to the agreement between Qwest and Sprint. Commission Staff recommended its approval.

The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to SDCL Chapter 49-31, and the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996. In accordance with 47 U.S.C. § 252(e)(2), the Commission found that the fourth amendment does not discriminate against a telecommunications carrier that is not a party to the fourth amendment and the fourth amendment is consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity. The Commission unanimously voted to approve the fourth amendment to the agreement. It is therefore ORDERED, that the Commission approves the negotiated fourth amendment to the agreement as described herein.

Dated at Pierre, South Dakota, this 28th day of February, 2001.
